

Who we are

EDU-Port Japan is a“Public-Private Collaborative Platform” comprising relevant Japanese government ministries and agencies, universities/institutions, and private companies that was established to disseminate Japanese-style education and promote collaboration in education.

Visit our Website

Please contact

 eduport@mext.go.jp

2016 EDU-Port Pilot Projects

Certified Project

Supported Project

Higher Education

Ehime University

Integrating of Japanese-style Lab Safety Education in technological universities

Chiba Institute of Technology

Space education and IoT/ICT training

Vocational training

Gakken Holdings Co.,Ltd.

Japanese vocational skill development project

Human Resources Japan

Business human resource development project for Thai students
~ Building up a learning system of Japanese business education style ~

Elementary and Secondary Education

TOKYO GAKUGEI UNIVERSITY

International project for expanding the Japanese model of teacher education with overseas Japanese schools

Yamaha Corporation

Introduction of playing musical instruments to the primary and secondary music classes

Japan Society for Educational Technology

Building our Shared future by Adapting Japanese Style education: Knowledge, Morality and Health -- Disseminating the Study of Japanese ICT Education --

[Africa]

University of Fukui

Startup enterprise of expanding Fukui's educational system from Japan to the World

Mizuno corporation

Mizuno HEXATHLON program introduction into public elementary education system

Hiroshima University

The Pilot Project for Improving safe learning environment through the use of a Japanese style package of disaster risk reduction and resilience education: "BOSAI"

Saitama Board of Education

Teacher training via the introduction of Saitama's active learning lessons.

Mikke Project by The Asahi Shimbun Company and HakuhoInc.

Introducing the Japanese Style learning platform "Mikke"

SPORTS DATA BANK CO.,Ltd.

The export of Japanese-style club activities.

Benesse Corporation

Preparing of vocabulary fixing program development for Vietnams Japanese learners

2017 EDU-Port Pilot Projects

Higher Education

Educa & Quest Inc.

Introduction of Japanese-style career education that makes proactive, interactive and deep learning in Vietnam, and support for its teaching method

[Southeast Asia]

Shibaura Institute of Technology

Implementation of the Global PBL program at Domestic and Overseas Universities with industry-academia-government collaboration of the GI Consortium members

Kansai University

Disseminating of Japanese-style engineering education through support to establish a four-year bachelor course in Mechanical Engineering at the Royal University of Bhutan

Nagoya University

Building a new common legal education model for fostering jurists capable of supporting the design of "judicial systems based on the Japanese model"

Gifu University

Teacher training system for basic experiment education in Myanmar universities Phase 1: Providing broad knowledge and deep insight through physics experiments

Promotion of International Cooperation Bangladesh

Problem solving in hospitals in Bangladesh using Design Thinking education

Elementary and Secondary Education

[ASEAN and African Countries (especially Republic of the Philippines, Republic of Malawi)] University of Fukui

"Disseminating Fukui-style education to the world" by teacher training collaboration projects in Asia, Africa and Japan

Japan Society for Educational Technology EDU-Port project

Enhancement of English teaching program for elementary school teaches in Cambodian Teacher Training Center by connecting with Japan while applying remote technology and Japanese-developed teaching materials.

Miyazaki C-Dance Center

Exporting Japanese-style dance education, "Creative Dance" that combines body formation and art experience

Japan Sports Communications

"UNDOKAI World Caravan" Project

Platform for Sustainable Education and Community

Overseas disseminating project of "School centered Community Revitalization" ~ Sustainable Development School Project in Bhutan